

My Times Are in Thy Hand

Psalm 31:15a

I've peace because your word has said, "My times are in thy hand."
No evil can o'ertake me here except as you have planned.
Though Satan roars against my soul, I've nothing now to fear,
For in your hand I'm held secure and you are always near.

I've joy because your word has said, "My times are in thy hand,"
And so my days are lived for you just as your word commands.
So whether now or in years to come you call me to your side,
May every day bring praise to you, 'til in your presence I abide.

I've hope because your word has said, "My times are in thy hand"—
Assurance firm within my soul—for every promise stands.
The angel said you would appear the same way you had gone,
And so I watch for your return; 'til then I'll carry on.

I've thanks because your word has said, "My times are in thy hand;"
I'll lift my voice to sing your praise, just as your word commands.
For as the Lamb upon the throne is worthy of all praise,
Exalted high as King of Kings, our songs to you we raise.
